

Practical Solutions for Music Learning and Dyslexia

This three day course is suitable for anyone teaching music: private practice (one to one), peripatetic group teaching, and classroom teaching at both primary and secondary level. No previous knowledge is required for these modules. Accreditation at Level 2 for this course is optional.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the course, participants will:

- Understand what dyslexia and other specific learning difficulties are.
- Understand how dyslexia and other specific learning difficulties affect music learning.
- Have explored a range of teaching techniques and tools through discussion, group exercises and demonstration to maximise music learning in instrumental and classroom teaching.
- Have analysed the benefits of the different tools and techniques and produce an action plan for implementation within the delegates own teaching setting.
- Have been introduced to the Kodaly method of music education as a tool for teaching children with specific learning difficulties.

Day 1: Fundamentals of Dyslexia Awareness

This is an e-learning module which is to be completed online before you attend the two face-to-face training days on Music Learning and Dyslexia.

Days 2 & 3: Music Learning and Dyslexia

These are face-to-face training days on 11 & 12 April 2017 based in London and facilitated by our Music and Dyslexia Learning Trainer.

Prices:

- Dyslexia and Music Learning – 3 days (Accredited Level 2): £670 (inc. £12 registration fee)
- Dyslexia and Music Learning – 3 days (attendance at courses only): £420

For further details or to book please email training@bdadyslexia.org.uk or call 0333 405 4565